The County Retreat internal layout

Lower lounge option available

Designed by Intuition. Architecturally Brilliant

The County Retreat brings together notes of romance, charm, contemporary objects and selected pieces of vintage and modern furniture, in a casually luxurious scheme unified by a palette of gentle tones. The perfect blend of elegance and splendour.

Brickwork and wood being key elements, it is highlighted by dark accents and wood mingled with vintage crushed velvet and luxurious but sensible window dressing, which complement an organic industrial style.

The Kitchen sits at a lower level to the rest of the home creating a sense of 'Difference'. With hints of refined character and beauty suggested throughout the home giving it a high quality feel between a Rustic Farmhouse and an English Country Home. With black kitchen units, solid oak worktops and yellow stone brickwork, the kitchen and breakfast bar are an incredible showpiece of stunning design that flows up the stairs forming an open plan connection blurring the distinction between spaces and uses.

An alternative option to have a lowered living area which will transform into a snug lounge is available and can completely change the atmosphere of the Retreat but still keep the same character and theme throughout.

The lounge is comfortable and luxurious with beautiful hand-picked pieces of furniture with a large sink in sofa in the softest of fabrics and for the finishing touch an abundance of cushions, selected to capture the heart whilst taking in the ever changing view beyond the fully glazed sliding door.

Set off from the grand hallway, the bathroom, similarly to the Ensuite, is seriously decadent and rich, complementing the total luxury and creating a sense of intimacy. They both have dark mirror finish tiles that flow from floor up the walls developing a spa feel and the mood for romantic candle lit pampering.

The master bedroom, like the rest of the home, draws upon a colour palette of natural wood, creamy milk, and taupe with dark accent earthy tones bringing warmth and comfort with the sophistication of a country manor. The solid antique black kingsize bed with oak finished bedstead sits proudly in the middle of the luxurious bedroom area. It is spacious with plenty of storage some of it built in, some selected pieces to please the senses, all hidden behind beautiful wooden double doors leading into a walk in closet/dressing area, in essence a must have space.

Coupled with revolutionary concepts, the new Pathfinder lodge is set to raise the standard and design in holiday homes!
