Forget a room with a view, this is a home with a view!

The View is something of a flagship for Pathfinder; it's an incredibly affordable home, meaning you can enjoy lodge living for less, but it's still built to the exacting standards and finished with the same finesse that you would expect of a Pathfinder home.

Holiday lodge living is all about your natural surroundings, which is why the front of the open-plan living area is completely glazed. When you want to let the outside in you can fall into one of your three-seater sofas, with a fresh coffee and a good book and simply take in the view.

Behind the venetian blinds in the kitchen is a wide window to let the light pour in, so in this modern, open-plan living space, even when you're whipping up something in the kitchen, you can still enjoy the view.

The two twin bedrooms offer ample space and storage for guests so they can really unpack, relax and unwind. The bathroom boasts a beautiful white suite and the marble effect shower wall really finishes the look.

After looking around the master bedroom you would be forgiven for forgetting that The View is Pathfinder's most economical home; with a double bed nestled between two bedside tables, a huge window hidden behind thick curtains and a walk-in wardrobe, with a dressing area - there really isn't much more you could ask for... except of course for an en-suite bathroom with a modern, glazed, built in shower – well that's lucky, because it's all included!
