The Summit, The Peak of Inception

Conceived from pure alpine vacation indulgence, The Summit was born. The Summit is a property to be reckoned with, a definite discerning 5 star! This lodge is exclusive with very unique interior styling. The first of its kind and breath-taking. The exteriors natural finish, shiplap cedar cladding has a rustic earthy charm all of its own which complements the dark grey frames. The square glass panes fabricate a cosy feel inside with luxurious fabrics that softly drape the windows keeping out the elements. The Summit has a complete corner glass curtain with bi-fold doors that open wide to capture those panoramic views from the living area or the comfort of your bedroom. The alpine feel and style of detail evoke the distant eastern lands of the Himalayan Mountains, and combined with fabrics in warm shades recall this setting; luxurious detail quietly accompanies the original beauty of the natural materials.

The Summit sports a large open plan living area and a detailed sitting area/dining room with a curved television resting on flowing bespoke fitted units and fireplace. The corner and lounge sofa offer the upmost in modern design with warmth and comfort to stretch out on. To either end of the fitted units is more casual seating with random scatter cushions. A feature wall in stone clad is particularly spectacular. A fully fitted and integrated kitchen offers a sociable space with full oven, ceramic hob looking over the lounge. The dining area has a large bespoke dining table and matching chairs!

There are 3 bedrooms, well kind of bedrooms. A master bedroom and personal spa space, a snug den and a super king relaxation area. The super king relaxation bedroom expands off from the centred way and is home to a huge zip 'n' link bed showered by the roof light and facing a 22" wall mounted TV. As a space to relax and revive, a personal, fully natural stone tiled ensuite is provided with Bluestone honed marble basin, 800 shower and personal toilet. Opposite, the floor and wall wood finish continues into 'the Den' with two cosy wood-framed, bunk beds with the entertainment of a 22" built in TV. This is the perfect snug warm hideaway for the little ones or big ones! The main bedroom has an impressive, inviting bespoke super king bed and headboard with personal flexi reading lights, perfect for those cosy evenings and getting lost in that gripping holiday novel. Leading from this bedroom is the spacious fully tiled spa ensuite where you are met with the stunning white freestanding bath under the large roof light, the incredible bluestone honed marble basin and of course under floor heating flowing into a luxury shower room.

There are very few lodges that provide this mixture of jaw-dropping style, perfection of mix, overwhelming luxury and stunning innovation delivered with a warm and personal approach - The Summit absolutely does! It's created a lodge design genre of its own.

Think Alps, breath The Summit.
